NOTIFICATION OF RESPONDENT'S DEFAULT

Case No.: [Insert case number]

Disputed domain name: [Insert domain name]

This is to notify you that you have failed to comply with the deadline indicated in the Notification of Complaint and Commencement of ADR Proceeding for the submission of your Response in the above-referenced case and/or that you have failed to comply with the deadline indicated in the Notification of Deficiencies in Response in the above referenced case.

In accordance with the .eu Dispute Resolution Rules (the ADR Rules) and the Supplemental Rules of the Czech Arbitration Court (the ADR Supplemental Rules), the consequences of your default include the following:

- (1) We shall go forward and appoint an ADR Panel based on the number of panelists designated by the Complainant. As the Complainant has designated a single-member Panel, we shall appoint the panelist from our published list. / As the Complainant has designated three-member Panel, we shall appoint a Panelist from the list of Candidates provided by Complainant and 2 Panelists from our published list. In case we are unable within five (5) calendar days to secure the appointment of a Panelist from the list of Candidates, we shall appoint a Panelist from our published list of Panelists.
- (2) The ADR Panel and the Complainant will be informed of your default. The ADR Panel will decide in its sole discretion whether or not to consider your defective Response (if submitted) in deciding the case.
- (3) Notwithstanding your default, we shall continue to send you all case-related communications to your contact details and using the methods you have specified in your Response (if submitted later), or as we consider appropriate in our discretion (if not submitted).
- (4) You have a right under Paragraph B3 (g) of the ADR Rules to challenge this Notification in a written submission to the Czech Arbitration Court filed within 5 days from receiving this notification. You must use the appropriate form available on the website of the Czech Arbitration Court. The Czech Arbitration Court shall acknowledge receiving your challenge and shall forward it to the Panel within 3 days from its receipt. In submitting your potential challenge, you must use Form A15 available on the website of the Czech Arbitration Court.

Yours sincerely,
